THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS.

(Office: 739 13th Street, Washington, D.C.).

The Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions was established in 1874 by the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, upon the recommendation, and for and in behalf, of the Catholic Prelates having Indian Missions within the limits of their Dioceses, for the purpose of representing before the Government the interests and wants of the said Prelates in all matters pertaining to Indian affairs. It was, by Decree of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore, which was approved by Rome, recognized as an Institution of the Church, and was by that Council placed under the charge of a Committee of seven Prelates, consisting of His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons; Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia; Most Rev. P. J. Riordan, Archbishop of San Francisco; Most Rev. P. L. Chapelle, Archbishop of Santa Fe; Rt. Rev. James A. Healy, Bishop of Portland; Rt. Rev. John B. Brondel, Bishop of Helena, and Rt. Rev. M. Marty, Bishop of St. Cloud. In 1894 this Committee was dissolved, and the Bureau as then constituted was superseded by a new corporation chartered by an Act of the Assembly of the State of Maryland—the incorporators being His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore; Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia, and Most Rev. M. A. Corrigan, Archbishop of New York, and its corporate name being “THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS”. The new organization succeeded to all the rights and powers of, and all the property held by, the old incorporation; has adopted laws for the government and guidance of the Bureau, and has selected as its officers the following:

RT. REV. MONSIGNOR J. A. STEPHAN, Director ,
REV. E. H. FITZGERALD, D.D., Assistant-Director ,
REV. E. R. DYER, SS., D.D., Treasurer .
CHARLES S. LUSK, Secretary .

The principal work of the Bureau is the establishment of Boarding and Day Schools among the Indian Tribes, and the procurement from the Government of funds for their support and maintenance.

The Schools receiving aid from the Government are distributed among the different Dioceses as follows:

AMERICAN COLLEGES IN EUROPE.

PONTIFICAL COLLEGE OF NORTH AMERICA. — THE NATIONAL COLLEGE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AT ROME, ITALY. Founded by Pius IX. and formally opened by him Dec. 8, 1859; raised to the rank of Pontifical College by Leo XIII. by Apostolic Letters "Ubi primum" of Oct. 25, 1884, and destined for the education of students for the Church in the United States of America. Without dispensation from the Pope only students from America are admitted into the College.

Students enter for philosophy and theology, and sometimes also for humanities, and follow the course of the Urban College of the Propaganda for all branches.

A supplementary apartment has been opened lately where a few students are accommodated, that with proper permissions, desire to remain in Rome sometime after their ordination, in order to pursue special studies, or to become acquainted with the practice of the Roman Congregations. Rev. Wm. H. O'Connell, rector; Rev. Torquato Armelleni, S.J., and Rev. Pio De Mandato, S.J., spiritual directors; Rev. John P. Farrelly, D.D., Magister pietatis. Number of students, 65.

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY AT LOUVAIN, BELGIUM. This College has been established by several of the American Bishops with the consent and approbation of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Malines, under the patronage of the Bishops of Belgium, and under the auspices of charitable persons both in Europe and America, who take a lively interest in the missions of the vast American continent.

The object of the institution is to procure for young men who desire to consecrate themselves to the missions of North America, a sure and easy means of pursuing their vocation.

The students are taught the English and German languages, and after having gone through a course of theology and after having received the instructions necessary for their holy mission and the requirements of the country which they are destined to evangelize, may be allowed to enter the more profound branches of the celebrated Catholic University of Louvain.

The missionaries educated in the American College are destined to remain secular priests, and, as such, will labor in the places assigned them by their respective Ordinaries.

Applicants for admission must have received the permission of their Ordinary, and must be furnished with certificates of good conduct and have aptitude for the study of theology or philosophy. Those who enter after having been ordained priests will be sent to America and become affiliated to a diocese as soon as they are judged sufficiently qualified for the work of the missions. Students who pay their own pensions will have the right of choosing any diocese they please amongst those whose Bishops are patrons of the institution. Those who do not pay for themselves will be at the disposition of the Rt. Rev. Patrons who secure payment of their expenses. Students whose expenses are paid by burses founded by charitable persons will be placed according to the intention of the founder. Charitable persons in Europe are contributing to the foundation of burses in the College for the purpose of educating young men for the American missions. It is earnestly hoped that the Rt. Rev. Prelates of America will employ their influence to secure similar foundations for the institution by zealous and charitable persons in the New World.

The Rector would respectfully request the Patrons of the Institution, as well as other American Prelates who desire to place students in the College, to inform him of their intention at least two months before the opening of the scholastic year which begins on the first of October.

In case the number of applicants should be greater than can be received, the preference will be given to the students of those Prelates who have contributed towards the foundation. Students who wish to enter should be at least sufficiently advanced in their studies to begin philosophy. The annual pension for board including bedding is $140 in advance.

As early as 1817 the Sisters of Charity of Emmittsburg, Md., were called to New York, where their first duty was the care of the orphans. When this branch numbered 33 Sisters it seemed desirable to form an independent and separate Community of which Sister Elisabeth Boyle, who succeeded Sister Rose was chosen first Mother superior in 1846. J., but finding it ill adapted for the purpose of a novitiate and boarding school purchased the Chegaray Mansion, Madison, N. J., of which they took possession in 1860. Finding the distance from the railroad station to be a disadvantage to the schools, the Sisters built a new Convent and Academy at Convent Station in 1878, where the Motherhouse is located. CONVENT at 114-116 E. 86th st., New York City. Established May 1892.

The work of the Sisters is to visit and nurse the sick poor in their own houses, and to give religious instruction to children and adults. The Sisters have no schools, but receive children on their leaving the public schools in the afternoon for catechism classes, both for boys and girls: have Sunday and evening meetings for older girls engaged in business houses. Many converts, or Catholics whose religious education is deficient, are instructed individually and prepared for the Sacraments. The same work is done for the colored people. All the works are undertaken with the view of helping the Souls in Purgatory, not only by prayers, but also by works of mercy spiritual and corporal; and they are entirely gratuitous, nothing being accepted either from the sick poor, the parents of children instructed, or their friends. The Sisters depend upon Divine Providence, and the free gifts of those whose devotion to the Holy Souls prompts them to aid a Society devoted to work for the living and the dead. Legal title: The Society of the Helpers of the Holy Souls of the City of New York.

SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH (of Carandolet).

The Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph was founded in the city of Puy, France, in the year 1650, and rapidly developed itself in most of the chief cities of the land, when the French revolution of 1789 demolished all, or nearly all Convents. After the subsequent restoration of religious Orders in France, the Institute was reorganized in Lyons, which House became the General Motherhouse of the Congregation and the parent of all subsequent establishments. In 1836 six Sisters from the Motherhouse of Lyons, at the request of Bishop Rosati of St. Louis, came to found a House at Carandolet, near St. Louis, which then became the chief Motherhouse in this country, without however being dependent on Lyons. All the Houses of the Sisters of St. Joseph in the United States and Canada, except those of New Orleans, Cincinnati, St. Augustine, Fla., and Savannah, Ga., owe their origin either directly or indirectly to the Motherhouse of St. Louis. As however, in the early days the Institute was considered diocesan, it naturally followed that many Branch or Novitiate Houses should be established, until in 1861, by the authority of His Holiness, Pius IX., the Congregation was reorganized under approved Rules and Constitutions and subjected to the immediate government of a Superioress General who resides at the Motherhouse of St. Louis, and to whose jurisdiction all the Houses thereafter founded by this House, were to be subject.

GENERAL MOTHERHOUSE at Paris, France.

AMERICAN PROVINCE OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

PROVINCIALHOUSE, NOVITIATE AND SCHOLASTICATE, at St. Mary's Academy and Female Industrial School, 74 Franklin st., Buffalo, N. Y.

During the Revolution of 1789, all communities of religious ladies disappeared from France and on the feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin in the year 1793, a new religious order had its heroic beginning, viz.: that of the Daughters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The founders of the new Institute were Rev. Pere de Clorivière, provincial of the Society of Jesus in Paris, aided by Peres Barat and Narin of his community. Nearly 300 ladies who had been professed in the old religious orders, but who had been banished from their convents by the Revolutionists, quickly joined this Society, and in a short space of time we find them in the schools, orphanages, hospitals — they were directing nearly all the charitable institutions previously directed by the banished orders.

The Daughters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary follow the Rule of the Society of Jesus; the Jesuit system of instruction is adopted in all their educational establishments. They do not wear a distinctive religious habit but merely the ordinary secular dress. The members are known to the outside world by the names given them by their parents in baptism. The order is established in all parts of the civilized world. The nuns adopt themselves to circumstances and to the people amongst whom they labor. The Institute is in full communion with and the Rule and Constitutions have been formally approved by the Vicar of Christ.

The Society was introduced into the United States in 1853 by the venerable Mademoiselle Anne Paugef, Madame Victorine Boucher, Miss Ernestine Nardin, Madame Marie Le Masson, Mademoiselle Veronice Le Claire, Miss Marie Mongey, Madame Marie Lambert, Madame Ida Rompé and Miss Barbara Schrieter, all volunteers. As in Europe, the success of the order in this country has been marvellous and their institutions have been crowded both by the wealthy and the cultured and the poor and the lowly. In the United States the members of the order conduct the following good works: Academies for the higher education of young ladies, Kindergartens and Preparatory Schools for little girls and boys, Parochial Schools for both sexes, Missions for Indians, Trades Schools for deaf and dumb boys and girls, Homes for working-girls of good character, both while in and out of employment, Institutes for the improved instruction of deaf-mutes of both sexes (pure, oral and combined methods), Industrial Schools, where poor girls and orphans are taught trades, Day Nurseries for the children of working mothers, Night Refuges for homeless women and children, Orphan Asylums for both white and Indian girls, educational and industrial Missions for Italian children, Homes for aged ladies, and a House of Refuge for aged and infirm priests. Aspirants who apply for admission, even though they are uneducated and without money, will be trained for the Schools, if they evince talent. All aspirants must present letters from their confessor. The teachers of the order are obliged to pass the academic and normal courses before they will be permitted to teach in a parish school, hence the high grade of scholarship among the teachers of the order.

Professed Nuns about 500.

VISITATION NUNS.

The Order of the Visitation was founded at Annecy (Savoy) in 1610 by St. Francis de Sales, Bishop and Prince of Geneva, and St. Jane Frances Fremiot de Chantal, for the purpose of opening a Retreat to persons desirous of the religious life, too infirm in body to enter an austere Order; there to sanctify themselves by prayer and good works, and to help the salvation of souls, using for that all the means in their power, as prayer, self-sacrifice, charity of any kind compatible with the Rule; retreats and spiritual exercises offered to souls desirous of greater perfection. The intention of the holy Bishop, was not, he says it expressly, to occupy his daughters with the education of young girls, nevertheless, he allowed some few in the monasteries, whose parents destined them to be formed more for solid piety than for the world; and this has been observed almost universally with the said conditions. The Monasteries of the Visitation although spread through all countries even during the life time of the Founder, have no Superior General, they are independent of each other, nevertheless the holy Bishop of Geneva gave them a bond of union, which he deemed stronger than human means. He wished all the Visitation Houses kept in an intimate union, by a mutual Charity, and child-like confidence towards the Motherhouse at Annecy, whose duty it is in return for this to watch with a motherly love over the spiritual and temporal necessities, as well as the keeping up of the letter and the spirit of the Rule. Therefore, any house has the right to refer to Annecy in its troubles or difficulties, and each house more-over owes its assistance to the houses founded from it. Three Centuries testify to the wisdom of the holy Founder, by the perfect union and preservation of the primitive spirit in the 170 Monasteries existing at present throughout the world. The Visitation was introduced in America in 1799 when the first Monastery was established at Georgetown, D. C. At that time the needs of the country requiring all good Catholics to unite their common strength in the work of Christian education, the Visitation in America had from its first beginning to extend the simple concession of the Founder, making education the principal object of its existence. This naturally made it deviate from the first idea of the Founder, and from the original respect of the Visitation of 1610.

VISITATION CONVENT, Wilmington, Del.

In 1892 Miss Mary L. Abell, daughter of A. S. Abell, Esq., of Baltimore, was inspired with the wish to establish the Visitation in its primitive spirit and rules. She made the proposition of this great undertaking to the Monastery of Wilmington, Del. (founded at Keokuk in 1853 by four Sisters from Montluel, France, and transferred to Wilmington, Delaware, in 1868). The proposition was accepted, and the plan laid out and executed under the guidance of the Right Rev. A. A. Curtis, D. D., Bishop of Wilmington. The Motherhouse of Annecy, sent at the request of the Community two Sisters to establish the Rule, one of whom, Mother Marie Alexandrine de Butler was elected Superior in June 1892. The new Monastery on Bayard ave. was completed in 1893 and on July 31, the transfer of the Community, 32 in number, was made from the Convent on Delaware ave. to its present location.

THE BROTHERS OF THE CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS.

This Institution is delightfully situated on one of the most favored sites in the vicinity of New York. The grounds, embracing about 100 acres, afford ample opportunity for all kinds of athletic games, while the proximity to the sea gives the pupils special facilities for bathing, boating, and fishing. The healthy location of the Academy, with its well-tilled farm, teeming orchards, and beautiful gardens; the gentle breezes from the Sound; the graceful movements of the passing vessels; the historic hills and smiling valleys of Long Island, stretching away in the distance, make it, in short, an ideal spot in which for boys to pass their school days.

The course of instruction is both thorough and comprehensive. It embraces four departments: the Primary, the Intermediate, the Commercial, and the Academic.

One of our most eminent city physicians, Dr. E. H. Trudel, professor of the Victoria College, presiding physician of the dispensaries of the Sisters of Providence, Montreal, who has used it extensively in his practice for nearly twenty years, speaks of it as follows:

“75 DUBORD STREET,

It is now eighteen years and upwards that I have been attending physician to the reverend sisters of the Providence Asylum. During that period I have prescribed their Compound Syrup of Spruce Gum, not only to the inmates but also to outside patients.

The valuable properties this syrup possesses induce me to place it in the foremost rank amongst the remedies known to the therapist in all cases of coughs, bronchitis, and consumption, affording those troubled with these complaints the most wonderful relief.

PHILOPAIDIA.

NO MORE FEAR OF DIPHTHERIA.

Some seven years ago I discovered this medicine, and have since used it in thousands of cases of Diphtheria with the very best results. There is hardly a case on record in which it did not speedily and permanently cure this disease. The medicine is free from poison, and will produce no baneful effects.

In 1881 Diphtheria was raging in St. Joseph, Minn. Sixty-four children were laid up with this dreadful disease; Philopaidia cured all except one child, which did not take the medicine as prescribed. Of the place above named here are only a few references: Hon. C. Capser, Hon. W. Merz, J. H. Linnemann, Esq.

In New Munich, Minn., a family, after losing three children by Diphtheria—the doctors having tried their skill in vain—used Philopaidia, and thereby saved their remaining four children, who were also down with this disease.

Rev. Joseph Boever, Fergus Falls, Minn., has used Philopaidia in many cases, and always with satisfactory results. He has written me several very flattering letters.

Rev. Martin Schmitt, Mandan, D. T., says: Philopaidia will cure at least 80 cases of Diphtheria out of 100.

Rev. J. Wirtz, Somerset, Wis: Your medicine is all you claim for it. Many cases of Diphtheria have been cured with it in this vicinity I would not be without it.

Franciscan Fathers, Columbus, Neb.: Have used your medicine with entirely satisfactory results.

Mrs. Anna Schwendemann, St. Joseph, Mo.: Philopaidia is a sure remedy against Diphtheria; it has already saved many lives. It is not sufficiently known.

Hon. J. P. Hammerel, St. Cloud, Minn.: Philopaidia saved my life and that of my children.

Mr. E. Stierle, Druggist, St. Paul, Minn.: Philopaidia will safely cure a severe attack of Diphtheria.

I could furnish a list of references, all of which would prove the efficacy of Philopaidia in cases of Diphtheria. Be not deceived, dear reader, by the so-called "Professionals" who oppose this medicine, of course (!) on account of their philanthropic (?) proclivities. They love you even as far as your pocket-book! I beg my friends not to be humbugged, but to use the Philopaidia as prescribed. The medicine will speak for itself. Where once known it will need no advertising.

Only at the urgent request of my friends have I consented to place the Philopaidia in the market, believing firmly that no family ought to be without it. Ask your druggist for it. Give the medicine a trial, and convince yourself of the truth of my statements.

Price, $1 per bottle; per half-dozen, $5; or, per dozen, $8.

Orders addressed to me will receive prompt attention.

Mitchell's Geographies

The history of Mitchell's Geographies is a splendid illustration of the abiding power of real merit. A success from the beginning, they established themselves with marvelous rapidity in every State of the Union, and for years held undisputed sway as

The Standard Series.

Then came an era of geography-making. Spurred on by the success of "Mitchell," other publishers entered the field with new geographies, many of which depended largely for success upon mere beauty of text and illustration. Confident, however, of the correctness of principle upon which their books were based, the publishers of "Mitchell" bided their time. Through careful and timely revisions characterized by the same accuracy of statement and clearness of expression that marked their original production, the series has, in maps, text, and illustrations, been kept fully

ABREAST OF THE TIMES.

And what has been the result? With hosts of so-called modern geographies in competition, and despite a tendency of later authors and publishers to substitute pictures, vague generalities, and wonder-stories for legitimate geography, the steadily increasing popularity of the "Mitchell" of to-day clearly indicates that the only guarantee of permanent success is the merit that stands the test of actual use.

With the fullest confidence, therefore, in the continued endorsement of Mitchell's Geographies this statement is respectfully submitted by the publishers,

"Now that the State of New York has appropriated $25,000 for each of the four years, beginning with 1895, for apparatus to be employed in giving illustrations in schools by means of stereopticon mainly, a new interest has been created. Prof. Albert S. Bickmore, of the American Museum of Natural History, New York City, has outlined a course of lectures which are to be thus illustrated, as was reported in The Journal last week.

"The contract for the sixty-seven stereopticons to be furnished to city or village schools having superintendents has been awarded to Mr. Charles Beseler, 218 Centre Street. Mr. Beseler has been in business since 1875, and is a maker of all kinds of Scientific Instruments, and is widely known as a maker of Stereopticons for schools and colleges.
